

The Auriga Lighting Series is a versatile family of medical lighting solutions with the versatility to illuminate any space in your facility, from ICUs to patient rooms to ORs and anywhere in between. With adjustable color temperature and brightness, tandem systems with as many as 4 arms, and multiple 360° joints, the Auriga can provide precise and versatile lighting no matter your need. The Auriga can also be equipped with integrated cameras and direct integration to network systems to provide extensive functionality and convenience.

Features

- Adjustable color temperature with a warm 4500K and a white 5000K
- Variable brightness up to 160,000 lux
- Up to 2 unrestricted 360° joints
- Specialized lighting mode designed for endoscopy, available at the push of a button
- Sleek, hygienic construction
- Integrated control panels
- LED life surpassing 60,000 hours of operation

Options

- Up to 4 light heads in a tandem system
- HD cameras with high resolution and clear zoom functionality
- Camera substructure for later upgrades
- Direct integration into hospital network and information systems to relay camera feeds
- A range of color options