

The Cygnus Boom Arm System is a comprehensive line of Boom Arms that are customizable to meet your facility's particular needs. Cygnus Boom Arms are available in three different sizes and can be equipped with mechanized vertical movement to offer unparalleled versatility and functionality. With features such as internal supply line channels, uplighting, and remote control, the Cygnus is a powerful platform that can support your facility in a host of ways.

Features

- Internal channels to secure and organize supply lines
- Integrated uplighting
- Arm reach up to 8 ½ feet
- Load capacity up to 2200 lbs
- Sleek, hygienic construction
- Small, Large, and Compact models to fit your facility no matter the size or scope

Options

- Friction, pneumatic, or electromagnetic breaking
- Motorized vertical movement
- Remote control functionality
- Brake indicator lights
- Tandem ceiling mounts
- Mount Auriga Exam Lights and Libra Monitor Booms directly from the Cygnus
- A range of color options