

Titan Vertical Service Head

The Titan Vertical Service Head provides a multitude of services and functionality in a package tailored to fit your needs. The Titan can be configured from infinite combinations of its 6 interchangeable components: Base, Gas Module, Electrical Module, Infusion Module, Multi Function Rack, and Shelves with optional drawers. With the flexibility to suit your unique facility and any use within it; the Titan can do it all, from providing organization and services in ICU rooms to supplying and holding surgical equipment in the OR.

Features

- Interchangeable components for custom configurations
- Internal storage of supply lines
- Services can be supplied from any side of the Titan
- Gas, power, and low voltage limited only by the capacity of the Cygnus model used
- Multi Function Rack for mounting shelves and accessories
- Integrated indirect lighting
- Equipment cart docking
- External cable channel for organizing device power cords
- 175 lbs of load capacity on shelves
- Smooth, hygienic construction

Options

- Design the Titan Service Head that provides the services and functions you need with your choice of components
- Customize to fit the size you have available
- Atmospheric sound system with Bluetooth compatibility
- Flat screen monitor holder
- Single and double drawers for added storage
- Device lifter for raising and moving anesthesia carts and other heavy equipment
- A range of color options

